Dear Incoming Freshman,

Welcome to Washington State University! You're about to become a part of a long tradition of greatness. You're receiving this letter because you are someone who's qualified for one of the most prestigious awards offered this year by Sigma Phi Epsilon.

In my time here at WSU, the most successful students I've seen are those that value learning, apply their skills outside the classroom, and establish a strong friendship with their peers. My Fraternity, Sigma Phi Epsilon, believes balance in our academics, athletics, and leadership involvement are the most important skill we can learn. We have created the Balanced Man Scholarship to recognize incoming freshmen men that exhibit this well-rounded approach to life.

Based on the principals of Sound Mind and Sound Body our scholarship rewards men that are well-rounded and find balance in their daily lives. A successful applicant has an active lifestyle, participates in team sports or individual physical activities, excels in the classroom and participates in extracurricular activities.

This year, we plan to give away hundreds of dollars with three cash scholarships. To qualify, you must be attending Washington State University in the 2010-2011 academic year. To apply, return the enclosed application or submit it online at bmswsu.com, along with a copy of your official high school transcript by June 1, 2010 to:

Will Broadlick
1124 C Avenue
Edmonds, Washington 98020

Applying for the Balanced Man Scholarship in no way obligates you to join Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity. If you have any questions about the scholarship, don't hesitate to call me at (425) 248-3836 or e-mail at wbroadlick@gmail.com.

More information about the Balanced Man Scholarship, including an online application, is available at www.bmswsu.com

Enjoy your last few weeks of high school, have a great summer and get ready to start the best years of your life at WSU!

Sincerely,

Will Broadlick
