

The Kappa Sigma Fraternity
University of Washington
Men's Undergraduate Scholarships

In the Amounts of $500 and $1,000 to Qualified Individuals

Our fraternity wishes to foster the future achievement of young men who embody the ideals of the four pillars of Kappa Sigma:

Fellowship, Leadership, Scholarship, and Service

Accordingly, we offer several generous scholarships for the benefit of outstanding young students.

Selection Criteria:

- Scholarships will be distributed to applicants attending the University of Washington for the 2010–2011 academic year who are either incoming freshmen or current freshmen or sophomores.
- Applicants will be judged by the quality of their application, their high school or college transcript, an interview, and any additional information given. (Many current Kappa Sigmas are very involved in campus organizations and Husky sports, and our grades consistently rank among the top fraternities on campus.)
- We will contact applicants to arrange the interview at our address in Seattle.

Deadlines:

- Priority will be given to applications postmarked by June 15th, 2010. After that, applications will be taken first-come first-serve.
- Awards will be decided and announce in Fall Quarter, 2010.

Contact Information:

- Visit our web site (listed below) or call Derek Cardenas (509) 851-8592.

Application (available with this information sheet or on our web site):

- Applicants are required to complete and submit our application listing personal and scholastic information as well as awards, honors, and extracurricular activities.
- Applicants are also strongly encouraged to submit any additional information such as resumes, personal statements, or other materials relating to the four pillars above that might aid our decision.
